thank you thank you thank you!!!

dear wonderful you, thank you for your generous support of survivor girl ukulele band — the cd! i am humbled and grateful and thrilled to share this music with you. thank you for joining us on this journey and helping these girls be heard.

thank you and anek bhalobashi to the survivor girls of sanlaap india in kolkata, who not only performed on this ep, but also helped write three of the songs — songs about tough times and happy times, about love and missing home, and even about eating ice cream on the moon!!

thank you to sanlaap india for the opportunity to work with the residents of your shelter home and for your steadfast collaboration with survivor girl ukulele band project.

boro dhanyabad (big thank you) to ed atlee, kimberly and robert berg, bob hickman, tom hubbard, yuko itatsu, ellie, doug knoll, hugh & fi mcafferty, tom and bonnie schwalbe, nick smith, sophie, and blake williams.

huge thanks to my executive producers, alper akture, hau'oli strummers ukulele club - san diego, dean & jean, hugh mcelveen, and charlie reller.

and a very special thank you to my twin sister, lois courtright — my biggest supporter every day and in every way. ami amar bonke bhalobashi!!

thank you thank you to ed tree for the survivor girl ukulele band song, and to udit saptarshi, sumit arya sinha, john o'kennedy, steve deutsch, mb gordy, chad watson, eddie hedges, richard barron, and paul mccarty for combining their many talents toward making four little songs into a real record.

imagine when the girls hear themselves on these recordings, wow! — they are elated and encouraged and empowered! and now new survivor girls will be inspired to be part of the music. so thank you. your partnership in this project will make a difference in the lives of many precious survivor girls for years to come.

thank you thank you thank you for joining the band!!

with much love and a grateful heart,

laurie kallevig
